

Asian American Studies

Correlate Sequence Planning Form

Requirements for the Correlate sequence in Asian American Studies: Each 6 unit correlate sequence in Asian American Studies is designed in consultation with an advisor from the Asian Studies program and the Asian Studies Director. The correlate should include (1) courses on Asian American studies (2) at least one course on global or transnational Asian studies/Asian diasporas or on diasporas and migration in general (3) at least one course on Asia (AS program courses, cross-listed courses, or approved courses), (4) other relevant courses on race and/or ethnicity in American society. The correlate will ordinarily include at least one 100-level and at least one 300-level course.

To declare a correlate: Please meet with the Asian Studies Program director and/or an Asian Studies faculty member who will serve as your correlate advisor. They can suggest courses that will fulfill the categories. Bring the filled out planning form to the Asian Studies Program office (NE 203) or email to asianstudies@vassar.edu. You also need to fill out the Registrar's Declaration of Correlate form and bring it to the Registrar's office.

Thank you for your interest in the Asian American Studies Correlate!

_____ (Name) _____ (Year) _____ (Major)

I. Statement of Correlate Focus: What questions (topical or theoretical) do you plan to explore in your correlate? How does the correlate complement your major? Please use the back of this page for your short (one paragraph) answer, or attach a second page.

II. Planned Courses for your correlate sequence:

_____ (100-level) / _____ (sem,yr)	_____ / _____ (sem,yr)
_____ / _____ (sem,yr)	_____ / _____ (sem,yr)
_____ / _____ (sem,yr)	_____ (300-level) / _____ (sem,yr)

Adviser's Signature Date

Director's Signature Date